NOTES:

Attention Commuters:

It is very important that there be preserved an atmosphere of peace, serenity and private reflection for those retreatants who are staying on the premises. For this reason, commuters will be accepted only if they will take part in the entire retreat experience, meals included. No one will be admitted once the day's activities have commenced, and leaving early is not allowed. We ask for your cooperation in this regard, out of respect for all. Thank you.
